with

Nationwide International Award for Business Person of the Year

Nomination Form

Entry Guidelines

This will be a person who, in the opinion of the judges, has established a track record of success for his/her organisation, enhanced the position of the Isle of Man, and made a positive contribution to the community, over at least a five year period. Qualities sought will include vision; commitment to high quality and professional standards; leadership; an ability to motivate and inspire; sound business judgement; and the "Freedom to Flourish" essence - giving everyone they meet the opportunity to reach their full potential. The winner could be in business, commerce, industry, or professional services.

Judging Process

The judging panel comprises a spread of business, public sector, professional and non-profit people, and includes individuals with specific expertise in strategy, marketing, HR, IT, finance, operations and community involvement. All judging data or details will be confidential to judges, unless permission to disclose them (e.g. for a newspaper feature) is obtained from the entrant.

Sponsors may enter awards, although the fact of sponsorship will confer no advantage.

Organisations linked to judges may also enter, but judges are expected to state an interest, and would be excluded from judging any categories so affected.

The full rules are available on request.

Awards ceremony on 13 November 2008 at the Gaiety Theatre

The awards ceremony will take place at The Gaiety Theatre on 13 November. The three finalists from each category along with a guest will be invited to the black tie event.

Supporters will be able to see the awards. Tickets will be available from the Villa Marina/Gaiety Box Office from 1 October 2008.

Note

There is a limit of four class entries per person/organisation/business.

Dickinson Cruickshank Award for Volunteer of the Year Nomination Form

Entry Guidelines

This award will be made to a person who, through volunteering, has made an outstanding contribution to the local community or to the wider world, by giving time, skills, imagination and effort to one or more worthwhile causes, and by inspiring others to participate. At least five years of effective volunteering will be necessary. Teamwork, a positive approach, celebrating the success of others, respect for different views, reliability and commitment, whether to local or overseas causes, are the main qualities sought. They give others the 'Freedom to Flourish'.
